INDEX

A

Adrenal origin, radiological diagnosis of diseases of, 572
Aerosol, citric acid, cough response of normal human subjects stimulated experimentally by; alterations produced by antitussive agents, 57
Alcohol, spinal fluid, in yeast meningitis, 560
Aldolase, serum, level in acute myocardial infarction, 38
Aminometramide, enteric-coated, therapeutic and toxic effects of, 175
Aminotetrahydrophrimidinedione, 1-allyl-3-ethyl-6-,(Mictine), therapeutic evaluation of, new oral diuretic, 289
Anatomic respiratory dead space with nitrogen meter, evaluation of single breath technique for measuring, 67
Anesthesia, di-ethyl ether, tachycardia and preanesthetic medication, effect of: measurements of mechanical and electrical events of cardiac cycle, 648
Angevine, D. M., see Hartmann, H. A., 667
Angina pectoris, treatment of, with disodium ethylene diamine tetraacetic acid, 654
Angiocardiographic pattern of high ventricular septal defect with left to right shunt, 528
Antibiotic therapy, prolonged, pseudomembranous colitis complicating, 667
Antihemophilic factor, plasma, relative stability of, under different conditions of storage, 434
globulin, deficiency of, association of vascular defect with; vascular hemophilia, 421
Antihypertensive, reserpine as, 194
Antitussive agents, alterations produced by; cough response of normal human subjects stimulated experimentally by citric acid aerosol, 57
Anuria and hematuria, cause of: djenkol bean poisoning (djenkolism), 172
Aronson, S. M., see Volk, B. W., et al., 38
Arterial pressure response to tetraethylammonium chloride in normotensive man, effect of carotid sinus denervation on, 297
Artery, coronary, disease and essential hypertension, some possible precursors of; hypercholesteremia in healthy young adults, 389
Arthritis, rheumatoid, quantitation of activity of; recession of morning stiffness as patients go into remission, 8 maximum 5-minute Cutler sedimentation rate as index, 12 area of joint surfaces as index to total joint inflammation and deformity, 150
Arthritis, method of summation of systemic indices of rheumatoid activity, 300
synergistic action of isonicotinic acid hydrazide and cortisone acetate in, 415
